

2026 ABC Prospectus for International Students

Part 1. Brief Introduction to ABC

Founded in 1903, Anhui Business College, or ABC is a publicly-funded full-time vocational college under the direct leadership of Anhui Provincial Department of Education. It is located in Wuhu, a national open city along the Yangtze River and close to Shanghai and Nanjing. In 2019, ABC is listed under Double High-level Project of China. It is a national high-quality vocational college, a national outstanding backbone vocational college, and has been recognized as a "benchmark institution for vocational development" and "benchmark institution for skills competitions" in the province.

Currently, the College has nearly 9,000 full-time students and 682 faculty and staff members, with over 90% of full-time professional course teachers possessing “dual-qualified” credentials (both academic and professional competence). The college offers 44 programs across 9 secondary teaching units. In recent years, it has won 19 first-place awards in national vocational college skills competitions, forming a distinctive feature of "distinctive business strengths and outstanding student vocational skills". The college has been selected as a national top 50 graduate employment institution, a national top 50 vocational college internship management institution, and a pilot unit for the Ministry of Education's "Modern Apprenticeship" program.

The college attaches great importance to international exchanges and cooperation. It has partnered with well-known institutions in the UK, USA, Thailand, Malaysia, South Korea, Japan, and other countries for talent cultivation, faculty training, and academic research. In recent years, responding actively to the national "Belt and Road" initiative, the college has strengthened exchanges and cooperation with countries along the route, having enrolled a total of 107 international students to date. The College has set up two overseas "Huizhou Craftsmanship Workshops" (Huizhou: a historical region in Anhui famous for traditional craftsmanship), established overseas teacher training bases, and two sessions of the "Short-Term Cultural Exchange Program for International Students" are held annually. The College promotes the dissemination of vocational education standards, and becomes a pick for "International People-to-People Exchange and Friendship College" Program. As a member unit of the China-ASEAN TVET Consortium, the College has also been accredited as an Advanced Unit in Foreign Affairs Work of Education of Anhui Province.
